

Press Room Supervisor

Position requires management/supervisory experience in the printing field.

Responsibilities include:

- Directing and maintaining daily press operations to assure maximum efficiency and maintenance of necessary quality and inventory levels
- Reviewing daily printing schedules and approving set-ups, speeds and scheduling required producing orders and satisfying sample order and off-line requirements
- Troubleshooting any operational or production problems as necessary
- Training and supervising employees in safe and efficient work methods
- Maintaining positive employee relations through effective communication and leadership
- Developing and maintaining positive working relationships with other plant supervisory and administrative staff
- Performing other similar and related duties as assigned

The position also requires 3-5 years experience with M-110C Press.

This position will report to the Plant Manager and VP of Manufacturing.